Model Release

*This release gives Gwendolen Swain Photography permission to use photographs of you.
The date and shoot are described in this contract's notes.*

1 The parties

This release is between Gwendolen Tabitha Swain, trading as Gwendolen Swain Photography (ABN 76 175 493 341) ("I", "me"), and the person named in this contract ("you"). If that person is under 18, a parent or legal guardian signs on their behalf and confirms they have authority to do so.

2 What you agree to INITIALLED

In return for the photography session and/or images described in the contract notes, you give me permission to use photographs of you taken at that shoot, including your likeness, in my portfolio, on my website and social media, in exhibitions, competitions, publications and printed promotional material, and to promote my photography business. This permission applies worldwide and without time limit, unless you withdraw it as set out below.

3 What I won't do

I won't sell or license images of you to anyone else for advertising, product endorsement or stock without asking you first. I won't publish your full name with the images unless you agree. I may crop, colour-correct and retouch the images, but I won't alter them in a way that is misleading or shows you in a poor light.

4 Copyright and payment

I own the copyright in the photographs. You won't receive any further payment or royalty for the uses described in this release, and you don't need to approve each use.

5 Changing your mind

You can ask me at any time, in writing, to stop using images of you. I will remove them from my website and social media within 14 days and won't use them in anything new. I can't recall material that has already been printed, published or submitted.
